What is the purpose of this application? (home page)

The home page only displays an overview description of the application. From here, you are able to click on any button on the navigation bar. Before viewing connections, I recommend that you click and read the about page. If you are having issues accessing the about page then proceed to page 5.

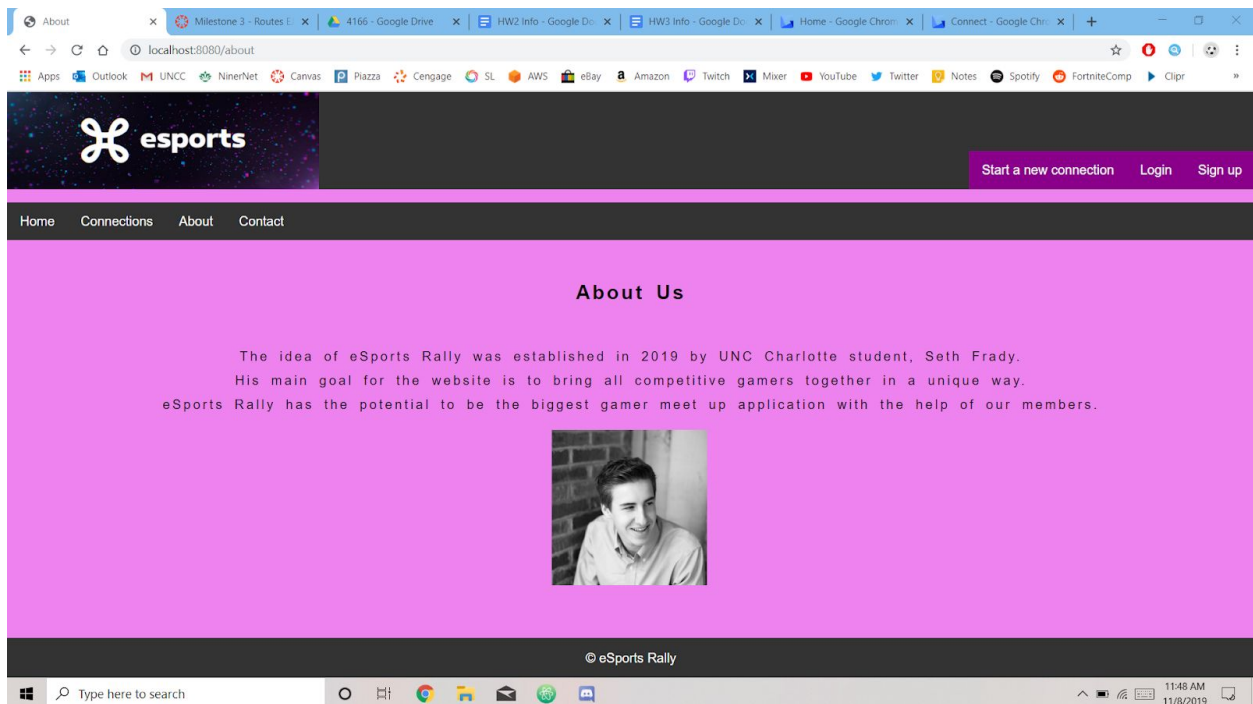

How to view a list of connections (connections page)

This page displays all the connections created (under three categories). You can click on each connection highlighted in blue which will take you to another page that will give you more details regarding that particular connection. Viewing a list of connections is simple. All you have to do is click the button at the top left of the screen under the picture labeled Connections. Clicking this will take you directly to Connections page so you can view connections.

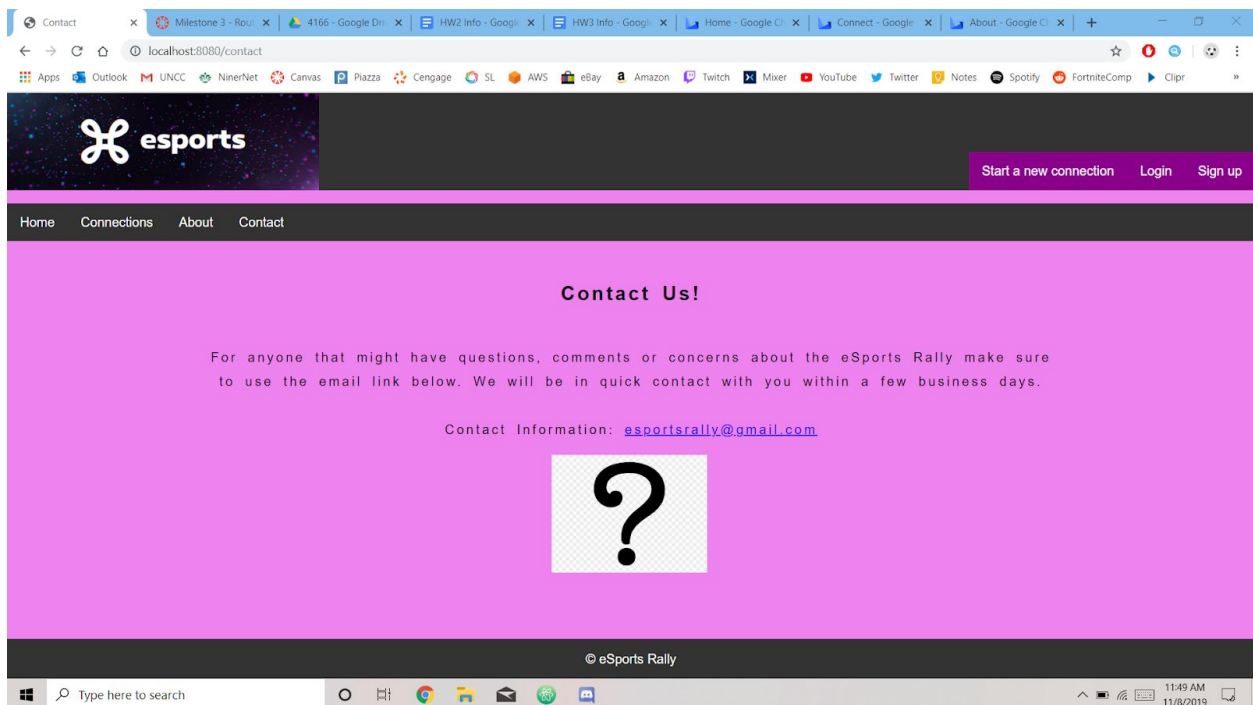

Who created this website? (about page)

This is the about page which tells you everything you need to know about me as a developer. This page is very simple to access. All you have to do is click the button at the top left of the screen under the picture labeled About. Clicking this will take you directly to About page so you can read what you see displayed below.

I'm having issues, who do I contact? (contact page)

The contact page is for anyone that has issues regarding the site. By clicking on the email associated on the page, this will take you to your preferred email service. To access this page is very easy. All you have to do is click the button on the top left of the screen under the picture labeled Contact. Clicking this will take you directly to Contact page so you can read and/or report any issues you are having.

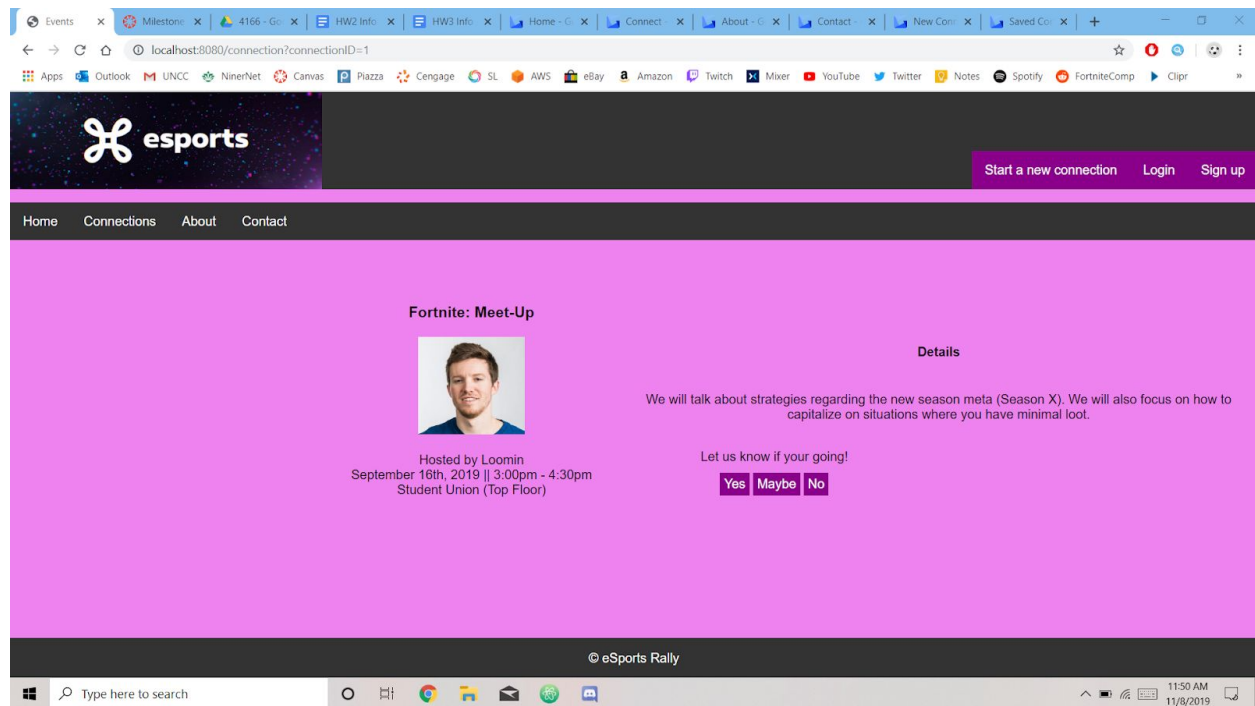

How do I create a new connection as a user? (new connections page)

To create a new connection you must already be registered with Esports Rally as a user. Please proceed to page 11 if you are having trouble signing up. If the issue has to do with incorrect input information then an error should pop up which will indicate what must be fixed before a new connection is submitted. After signing up and logging in as a user, all you have to do is click the button at the top right of the screen labeled Start a new connection. Clicking this will take you directly to New Connections page so you can create a specific connection.

The screenshot shows a web browser window with multiple tabs open. The active tab is 'localhost:8080/newConnection'. The browser's address bar and toolbar are visible at the top. The website's header is purple with the 'esports' logo on the left and a navigation menu (Home, Connections, About, Contact) in the center. On the right side of the header, there are three buttons: 'Start a new connection', 'Login', and 'Sign up'. The main content area has a light blue background. It features a form with the following fields: 'Platform', 'Game/Name', 'Details', 'Location', and 'Time'. The 'Time' field has a placeholder 'mm/dd/yyyy --:-- --'. Below these fields is a purple 'Create' button. At the bottom of the page, there is a dark purple footer with the text '© eSports Rally'. The Windows taskbar is visible at the very bottom of the image.

I want to view details regarding a connection (connection page)

This page displays the information about a particular connection that is clicked. If you are having issues getting this page to display please refer back to page 4. After logging in, clicking on any of the buttons labeled yes, maybe or no will save a connection to your saved connections page. If you want to learn more about the saved connections page please proceed to page 9.

How do I see my saved connections? (saved connections page)

Accessing your saved connections is very simple. First make sure you are logged in as a user. After that, all you have to do is click the button at the top right of the screen labeled My Connections. Clicking this will take you directly to Saved Connections page so you can view, update or delete any added connections. Clicking on the update link beside a connection will redirect you back to the details regarding that connection so you can change its rsvp status. Clicking on the delete link will completely delete that connection from your saved connections.

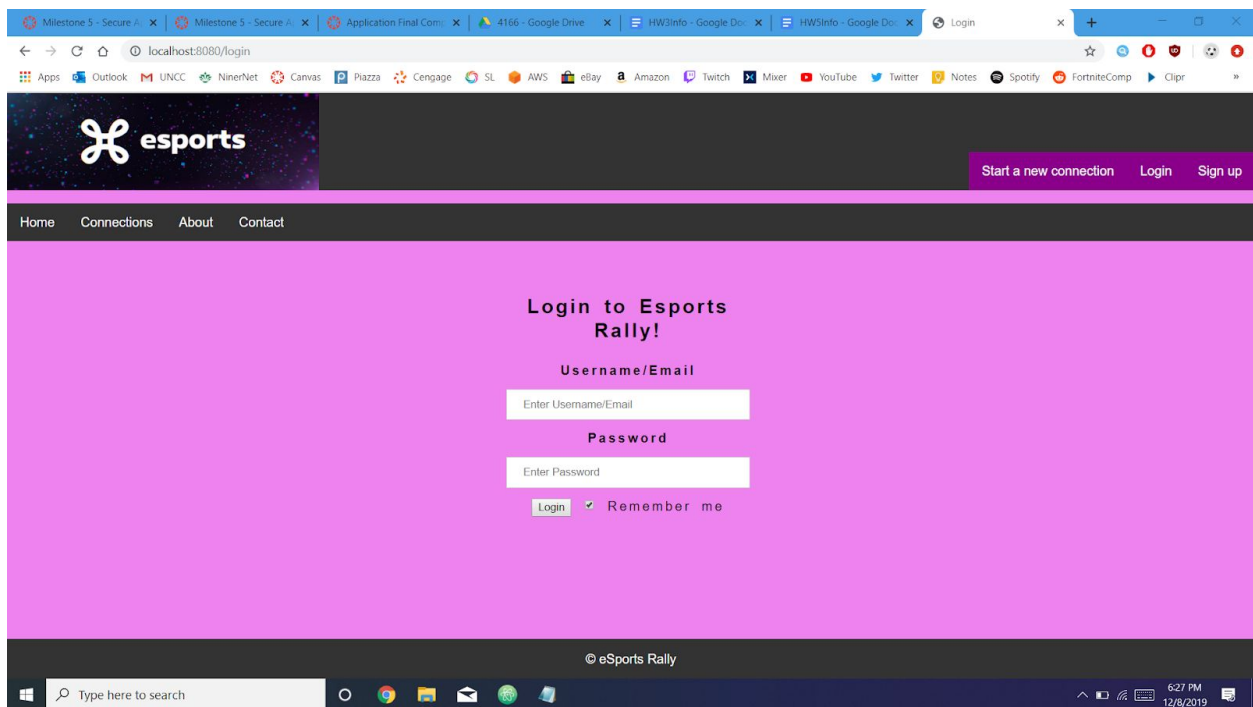

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL `localhost:8080/userConnections`. The page features a purple header with the eSports Rally logo and navigation links: Home, Connections, About, Contact. A welcome message "Welcome, Seth!" is displayed. The main content area is pink and contains a table titled "Seth's Connections".
